National Sorry Day 26th May

Fact:

The first Sorry Day was held in Sydney in 1998, it is now commemorated nationally with thousands of Australians from all walks of life participating in memorial services, commemorative meetings, survival celebrations and community gatherings to honour the Stolen Generations.

From Friday 27th May- 3rd of June is Reconciliation Week.

The following link has great information and video regarding Reconciliation Week.

As Australians, we are all here, woven into this country.

As part of our reconciliation journey, there are truths to tell, stories to celebrate, and relationships to grow.

Reconciliation is at the heart of our nations’ future.

Join us on our nation’s reconciliation journey.
